Red Ribbon Week Proclamation

WHEREAS, alcohol and drugs are the greatest and most widespread threat to the safety and health of our great nation's youth; AND
WHEREAS, the negative consequences of alcohol and drug use includes accidents, violence, injury, and even death; AND
WHEREAS, families, friends, communities, and society suffer and are ripped apart as a negative consequence of alcohol and drug use; AND
WHEREAS, such tragic waste of our youth can be reduced or even prevented if every citizen took time to understand the dangers of alcohol and drugs; AND
WHEREAS, the declaration of the Red Ribbon Week heightens our awareness and inspires families and communities to talk about drugs to educate our youth;
NOW THEREFORE, the Commander, 6th Area Support Group does hereby proclaim the 21 through 31 October 1998 as Red Ribbon Week in the Stuttgart, Garmisch, Chiemsee and Bad Aibling Military Communities. We call upon all military units, agencies, facilities, private organizations, chapels and families throughout the super 6th ASG to help raise awareness about this critical health and safety issue and join us in ensuring our youth enjoy a happy, healthy, clean and sober future.

COLONEL, TC
COMMANDER, 6TH ASG

Daylight Savings Reminder

Spring ahead, fall back...so don't forget to set your clocks back one hour before bedtime Saturday evening, Oct. 25.

Mail Box Mention

If you need to drop a large envelope in one of the drive-up boxes on Patch, please do not fold them before placing them in the slot. The envelopes unfold and block additional mail from being placed in the box. Therefore, post office officials ask that customers to please use the box with a door for such items.

Upcoming IMO Conference

The Regional Service Center will host a Information Management Officers Conference for the 6th ASG on Oct. 29 from 8 am. to 4:30 p.m. at the Swabian Special Events Center on Patch Barracks.

All interested personnel must sign up by Oct. 21 by contacting Harinder Sehra at 0711-729-2918 or via e-mail at (sehram@52sigsc.stuttgart.army.mil).

Green to Gold ROTC Scholarship

In an effort to seek quality officers for the 21st century, the Florida Institute of Technology and the U.S. Army is offering young soldiers the opportunity to attend college, earn a Bachelor's degree and become a future officer. With a U.S. Army Green to Gold scholarship at Florida Tech, financial assistance toward college tuition and educational fees provides soldiers with more promising means for launching their future.

Applications must be submitted between Jan. 1 and April 15. For eligibility requirements or additional information, contact: Capt. Robert Jordan at DSN 854-2691, your reenlistment NCO, or e-mail Florida Tech Army ROTC program coordinators through their Web site (<http://www.fit.edu/AcadRes/arotc>).

Unauthorized Road Use

The German police would like to remind Kelley Barracks residents of a road restriction. Since the back gate has been closed, a large number of drivers with American and German license plates have been using the private road connecting the back gate of the housing area to Plieningerstrasse as a short cut. This is an illegal use of this road. The road belongs to the people living there and is marked Landwirtschaftlicher Verkehr (Agricultural traffic only). The owners do not wish to make an issue of the matter, but want to inform drivers it is a private road. The fine for wrongful use of a private road is 20 marks.

Room Rate Changes

The 6th Area Support Group Billeting Fund Activities room rates have changed for the following facilities: Swabian Inn, Patch Barracks, VIP Suite, $47.50, normal room $36; Hilltop Hotel, Robinson Barracks, Suite, $46, normal room $36. Additional occupant rates remain at $4 per person.

SECTION II COMMUNITY INFO

Red Ribbon Week Activities

As part of the national drug awareness campaign Red Ribbon Week Oct. 21 to 31, program organizers have lots of exciting events in store for the community:

Tune in to AFN's radio personalities and other special guests as they host the official kick-off event Oct. 21, 2 p.m. at the Patch High School forum. A poster contest, cakes and a chance to win great prizes are just some of the things scheduled on the entertainment roster;

Join Common Bond and Pure Adventure Oct. 18 and 25 at Chapel services;

And finally, don't be scared to show up at the Robinson Barracks Youth Services' haunted house Oct. 30 to Nov. 1 – it's three days especially filled with family fun. But don't forget to grab a "Say Boo to Drugs" goodie bag before you go!

Ribbons will be handed out throughout the week by local organizations, military police and the like. Wear them on your shirt, tie them to your car antenna, hang them on the door – just show your support for a safe, drug-free community.

PTSA Meeting Rescheduled

The Oct. 15 Patch American High School PTSA meeting has been rescheduled to Oct. 27. Same time, same place: 7p.m. at the Patch High School forum.

"The Sport of Dating," a discussion of protocol aimed at parents, will be the special evening program and will cover such topics as: the accepted practices developed during teen interaction; how good manners, proper etiquette and common sense allows effective communication among teens; and what rules should practically be applied.

The program promises to be both informative and entertaining, so please make time in your busy schedule to attend.

Stuttgart Singers

If you like to sing, join the Stuttgart Singers and enjoy the music, fun and good friends we have to offer. Auditions aren't necessary, and all men, women, active duty, family members and civilians are welcome. Having holiday guests? They're especially welcome to join us for just the season. Rehearsals are Mondays at 7p.m. in the Patch Chapel. Call Kathy Williams at 07159-44991 for more information.

ENTERTAINMENT

Musical Brings Out Foolishness

If you're looking for an entertaining evening, the upcoming Stuttgart Theater Center production is just the ticket. Be prepared to take a walk back through time and take a look at the world with tongue-in-cheek. Musician and lyricist Tom Lehrer wrote and performed songs at a time when music captured both society's paranoia and prejudices. These songs were written cleverly with a turn of a phrase to poke fun at such things as smut, pollution, relationships and the war.

In addition, these numbers gave Lehrer a tremendous following and are gathered together in an energetic night of irreverent but irresistible music. "Poisoning Pigeons in the Park" and "The Vatican Rag" are among the tunes that have made "Tomfoolery" a hit in both London and New York. The Kelley Theater performances will be Oct. 23 to 26, 30 to 31, Nov. 1 and 5 to 7. All shows begin at 7:30 p.m. For tickets or more info call the theater center at 0711-729-2796.
